

Dear Andrew,

Thank you for your letter and I am so sorry that you have lived under the burden of all of this. I did not know that telling you briefly without being very clear on the facts and clear in how everything was resolved would cause such hurt. Please forgive me. I hate that you have carried this and worried so much and I am truly sorry for that. You and Torrey have been dear friends and we are so sad that you left. But we understand and trust that Jesus will lead and care for you.

If Jesus hadn't saved me and forgiven me over 30 years ago, I would have had no hope at all. I have lived in purity before God and people since that time and I am so grateful for the mercy that has been shown to me.

Thank you for all of the love and service that you and Torrey have shown over the years. And I pray that you will forgive me for any and all of the ways that I have hurt you. I never intended to cause you pain in any way. I love you and hope that in some way your letter and mine can resolve the hurt so that we can both keep going.

Steve
